

Healthcare Exploration for Youth

Interested in training for a career in healthcare? The HWF program may be for you!

Health Workforce for the Future (HWF) is a project funded by a federal grant under Health & Human Services' Health Professions Opportunity Grant initiative (HPOG).

You may qualify if you...

- + Receive TANF, or
- + Have a household income at or below 200% of poverty level

Coming Summer 2017...

Healthcare Exploration for Youth (HEY)

- + Learn about a wide variety of jobs in healthcare & see if one might be right for you
- + Take fieldtrips to healthcare training programs & meet professionals working in the field
- + 7 week course on Highline College campus, Monday thru Thursday
- + Earn college credit & obtain professional certificates in First Aid, CPR, etc.

Additional program assistance may include...

- + Support to enroll in healthcare training
- + Help with training entrance exams
- + Assistance with training costs
- + Academic support during training
- + Certification assistance
- + Job search support

TO FIND OUT MORE

please contact:

Cindy Holland/Emy Haruo
cindyh@nhwa.org
emyh@nhwa.org
206.461.4554

HPOG is a study funded by the federal government to determine how training opportunities like HWF help people improve their skills and find better jobs. During the study, all new eligible applicants will be selected by lottery to participate in HWF. Not all eligible applicants will be selected to participate.

Neighborhood House

© 2017

Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County

2003 Western Ave., Ste. 250 • Seattle, WA 98121-2162

206.448.0474 • www.seakingwdc.org

The WDC is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Provider of Employment and Training Programs.

This document was supported by Grant 90FX0037 from the Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (HHS). Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of HHS."